The Word

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P: Let us pray.

Lord Jesus, King of glory, on this day you ascended far above the heavens, and at God's right hand you rule the nations. Leave us not alone, we pray, but grant us the Spirit of truth that, at your command and by your power, we may be your witnesses in all the world; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Please be seated.

First Reading

Acts 1:1–11

Jesus tells his disciples that although he going to ascend, they will not be left alone. He promises to send the Holy Spirit to them and to us.

¹In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach ²until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. ³After his suffering, he presented himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. ⁴On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: “Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. ⁵For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” ⁶Then they gathered around him and asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” ⁷He said to them: “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” ⁹After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight. ¹⁰They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. ¹¹“Men of Galilee,” they said, “why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

P: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Ephesians 1:15–23

St. Paul teaches that Jesus ascended so that he might fill all creation with his presence and his power. Nothing is outside his control.

¹⁵For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people, ¹⁶I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers. ¹⁷I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. ¹⁸I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, ¹⁹and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is the same as the mighty strength ²⁰he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, ²¹far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. ²²And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in every way.

P: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 28:20

Alleluia. Surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age. Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 24:44–53

Jesus ascends, and instead of being sad, his disciples are filled with joy. They understood that Christ's ascension marked his coronation as the King.

⁴⁴He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms." ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶He told them, "This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high." ⁵⁰When he had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, he lifted up his hands and blessed them. ⁵¹While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven. ⁵²Then they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. ⁵³And they stayed continually at the temple, praising God.

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise be to you, O Christ!

Please be seated.

472 A Hymn of Glory Let Us Sing

CW 472

Text: tr. composite; The Venerable Bede, 673–735, abr. Tune: Geistliche Kirchengesäng, Köln, 1623 Text and tune: Public domain

Sermon Text:

1 Peter 5:6–11

⁶Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. ⁷Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you. ⁸Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. ⁹Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings. ¹⁰And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. ¹¹To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate.

He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who in unity with the Father and the Son
is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them up to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P: It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who by his willing sacrifice on the cross took away the sins of the world and by his glorious resurrection restored everlasting life. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Prayer of Thanksgiving

P: We give thanks to you, O God, through your dear Son, Jesus Christ, whom you sent to be our Savior, our Redeemer, and the messenger of your grace. Through him you made all things; in him you are well pleased. He is the incarnate Word, conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. To fulfill your promises, he stretched out his hands on the cross and released from eternal death all who believe in you.

As we remember Jesus' death and resurrection, we thank you that you have gathered us together to receive your Son's body and blood. Send us your Spirit, unite us as one, and strengthen our faith so that we may praise you in your Son, Jesus Christ. Through him, we glorify and honor you, O God our Father, with the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my + body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my + blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: Amen.

Personal prayer for before communion

Lord Jesus, you have invited me to come and receive your holy Sacrament. I believe that in the bread and wine you give me your true body and blood to eat and drink. Forgive my sins and nourish my faith through this precious meal. I long for the comfort that comes with your promises; I yearn for the assurance of your faithful love. Bless me now as I receive you by faith.

Announcements

Holy Communion:

The Bible teaches us that Holy Communion is a public demonstration of participants' united confession of the Bible's teachings (1 Cor. 10:17). Since we strive to follow all that the Bible teaches, we believe that members of this congregation or the WELS or ELS synod are united in the true teaching and may commune together. All guests should speak with a pastor before Communion, to first determine if unity of faith exists. We're eager to establish a unity of faith and to declare this oneness at Communion with you. Members of the congregation are to indicate their intention to commune in the friendship registration booklet. For preparation before you communion, you could read about the Sacrament of Holy Communion from Luther's Small Catechism on page 293, or you could review the Christian Questions that Martin Luther wrote for those who were about to communion on page 295.

CALL MEETING: There will be a Divine Call Meeting TODAY, immediately following 2nd service. Since we did not receive an assigned teacher, the voters will be choosing a 7th and 8th grade teacher. All are welcome! Please come and voice your opinions, even if you are not eligible to vote.

THANK YOU FROM THE NOWAKS. Thank you to everyone who helped us move from Findlay to Jenera and then from the teacherage to the parsonage. It is greatly appreciated and we could not have done it without your help. We also want to thank everyone on the Parsonage Committee for their work and effort to restore and fix the parsonage. The love and care for God's people in Jenera cause us to thank God every day. We look forward to being a part of such a wonderful community of believers for the foreseeable future. May our Triune God continue to strengthen you in love and thanks for all his blessings.

HUGE THANK YOU: We would like to thank everyone who had a hand in the parsonage remodeling. From the wallpaper removal, demolition, carpet removal and floor prep as well as landscaping and moving the Nowak family. We appreciate everything Bormuth Construction and the members of the congregation did to create a beautiful home for Pastor, Megan, and Leah to live in. We also want to thank the Nowak family for their patience during this project. God has blessed us with a congregation of supportive members and for that we are truly thankful.

The Projects Committee

SUMMER SPIRITUAL GROWTH: Summer Vacation is just around the corner. Even the students at our school are eagerly plotting what fun they will have during the summer. Here at Trinity the staff is looking forward to opportunities for spiritual growth that summer will bring. We hope to highlight them over the few weeks and unveil them throughout our more relaxed summer season.

A. Vacation Bible School – July 23 to 27: Trinity VBS 2023 Edition will be "God's Living Water: Covered in Jesus' Grace." Our lessons will focus on accounts in the Bible that emphasize the soul-quenching grace that surrounds us in Jesus. Focusing on Jesus, the Living Water, this series stretches from Creation to the Early Church, as believers bask in the grace of God. Join us July 23-27 from 6-8 pm. Registration is open for children ages 3 – entering 6th grade. Register online at tlcjenera.org or fill out the registration form at the back of church. Questions about children's portion of VBS —contact Jenny Boehm (262)391-7994

B. Family Suppers before VBS – When you enroll your children in VBS, you are also welcome to take advantage of our family suppers that will take place before VBS. This gives your family the opportunity to get a small supper and fellowship before VBS, especially if it is crazy to get supper together as you get off of work and ready for VBS. If you have signed your kids up for VBS, you can expect to receive an email from info@tlcjenera.org. If you have not signed up for VBS, sign-up will become available in June. It will invite you to sign up for the meals ahead of time. This meal is open to all! We have just a couple of requests. 1) Please sign up ahead of time, so that we can prepare the proper amount of food ahead of time. 2) This is a family meal. At least one parental figure should accompany the children that are eating. (This is not a drop and dash, but an opportunity for fellowship and a small supper with other families.) If you have any questions, please contact Pastor.

C. Parent Encouragement and Fellowship during VBS – We are excited to announce the addition of Parent Encouragement and Fellowship during Vacation Bible School. You will have the opportunity to meet other parents, discuss the truth of God's Word with other parents, and receive mutual encouragement and support as we shepherd the lambs that God has given us. In June, look for an email from info@tlcjenera.org. It will invite you to sign up for Encouragement and Fellowship. Join us and get to know the parents at Vacation Bible School and receive the encouraging Word that God has for parents today as they teach the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord! Questions? Talk to Pastor.

D. VBS Volunteers: Please consider serving as a volunteer this summer at our VBS program! VBS is scheduled for July 23-27 from 6:00-8:00 PM. Sign up in the back of church if you are able to help on some or all of the days. You can indicate what you would like to help with—games, crafts, snacks, music, or group leaders. Contact Jenny Boehm with questions. Thank you!

E. Summer Sunday School – The leaders of Trinity have decided that even Sunday School teachers need a summer break! However, the leaders and teachers also agree that spiritual growth never takes a vacation. With that in mind, each child from preschool through entering grade 6 in the fall will be receiving a summer devotion and activity book. The book contains daily devotions to be read independently, with a parent, or as a family. The activities can be completed to help further the day's devotion. Also, each week when the emailed bulletin is sent out, we will look to include a brief summary of the week ahead's content. Watch for the books to be available soon. We pray that this program will help our families stay connected to Jesus in the summer months ahead!

F. New Hymnal Introduction – Between Sunday services during the summer, we will be introducing new hymns, psalms, and parts of the worship service. This is open to people of all ages. We will go through songs that we will introduce shortly throughout the summer and into the next school year. Join us so that we can learn these songs together and encourage our worship participation. The new hymnal introduction will start at 9:30 am on Sundays and only go for about 20 minutes. Join us for fellowship and worship.

MORNINGS WITH MOMMY SUMMER PARK PLAY DATES: Bring all your kids/grandkids—both big and small. Join us at the Jenera Park starting at 9:30 on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of June, July, and August. Come when you can. Stay as long as you are able. Enjoy the sunshine and some fresh air. Let your kids play and burn off some energy while you talk with other adults. Our regular Mornings with Mommy program will start again on September 18 and 19. Online registration is open at tlcjenera.org. Pick up theme schedules, play date information, and brochures in the back of church. Questions?--Contact Jenny Boehm (262)391-7994 or mwmtrinity@tlcjenera.org.
