Grades 3-8 Song: “A Holy Light” by Rebecca M. Bishop

A holy light shines from a stable in little Bethlehem.
Deep in the night the shadows flee at the dawn of heav’n;
This Christmas night the Son of God is born.

And beaming bright across the sky gleam a thousand angels.
Within their song the Word reveals what was long foretold:
The Son is giv’n for you, God’s peace from heav’n.

Light eternal pierces the ages; hope from heaven calls to ev’ryone:
“Bask in the warmth of God’s grace, And see forgiveness in the Savior’s face.”

This wondrous night, as angels sing of this glorious mystery,
Here in the hay the Lord reveals his Son.
He is the light! Jesus is the Promised One!

This wondrous night is born a holy light.

1. WE ARE LOST IN DARKNESS

Narration: Mikayla Norway

It might seem unusual to think of Christmas as a dark and lonely time, but for many it is just that. Tree lights and the music of the season may mean little or perhaps nothing. The hustle and bustle of Christmas preparations can darken the holiday. For some people, when they look around, they have a hard time finding meaning in—to say nothing of the true meaning for—Christmas. Even for us, the rush of the holiday season may dim the real light of Christmas. We may lose sight of the light, which gives way to darkness. And like everyone in this world, we walk in the darkness of sin. Sin is everywhere.

It causes us to hate and hurt each other. It causes disease, war, and other acts of evil. It causes families to split apart at the seams. Eventually, it causes each and every one of us to die. We stumble daily because of sin's darkness. The prophet Isaiah put it this way:

3-4 Recitation:

We look for light, but all is darkness; for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows. Like the blind we grope along the wall, feeling our way like people without eyes (Isaiah 59:9,10).

5-6 Recitation:

Our offenses are many in your sight, and our sins testify against us. Our offenses are ever with us, and we acknowledge our iniquities: rebellion and treachery against the LORD, turning our backs on our God (Isaiah 59:12,13).

Narration: Trenton Siefker

Yes, sin affects all people of all time. No one can find the way to God because all are sinful. The psalmist David and the apostle John tell us:

Pre-K Recitation:

All have turned away, all have become corrupt; there is no one who does good, not even one (Psalm 14:3).

1-2 Recitation:

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us (1 John 1:8).

Narration: Trenton Siefker

Sinners even love the darkness and by nature hide from God's light. Jesus tells us:

5-6 Recitation:

Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that their deeds will be exposed (John 3:19,20).

Pastor:

By nature, we all find ourselves in the darkness of sin, hiding from God's light. Let us join together in confessing this to God.

Congregation, please stand.

Congregation:

Almighty God, you created us to enjoy the light of your truth and life, but we have loved the darkness of sin. We have filled our lives with all kinds of evil. We cannot even count our sins, and by our inherited nature we try to hide from you. For these sins we are guilty and deserve to be condemned. But we appeal to your mercy. Forgive us for the sake of Jesus our Savior.

Pastor:

God knew that we were lost in the darkness of sin and death. But he did not leave us lost, hopeless, and terrified. He sent light to shine in our darkness that we would be forgiven and saved. The light from heaven is Jesus Christ, God's only Son. He came into our world to be the light of God's forgiveness. Because of Jesus' perfect life and death for us, God declares that we are not condemned for our sins. Rejoice! Your sins are forgiven!

Congregation, please be seated.

Hymn by Congregation: "Now Sing We, Now Rejoice" (CW 34)

1. Now sing we, now rejoice, Now raise to heav'n our voice;
He from whom joy streameth Poor in a manger lies;
Not so brightly beameth The sun in yonder skies.
Thou my Savior art! Thou my Savior art!

4. Oh, where shall joy be found? Where but on heav'nly ground?
Where the angels singing With all his saints unite,
Sweetest praises bringing In heav'nly joy and light.
Oh, that we were there! Oh, that we were there!

2. THE LIGHT COMES INTO THE DARKNESS

Narration: Allison Stuckey

Tonight we celebrate the light sent from heaven at the birth of Jesus our Savior. Before the beginning of time, God planned to send his one and only Son. Jesus would come to make his home in the darkness among the lost. The light from heaven had been promised many times before he actually appeared. Prophecies gave a glimmer of light to God's ancient people. The prophet Isaiah wrote this about the coming Messiah:

1-2 Recitation:

The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of deep darkness a light has dawned (Isaiah 9:2).

3-4 Recitation:

To us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6).

Narration: Abbey Miles

Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist, prophesied several months before the birth of the coming Savior:

5-6 Recitation:

The rising sun will come to us from heaven to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the path of peace (Luke 1:78,79).

7-8 Narration: Abbey Miles

Let's recall how God sent the light into this dark world as we listen to Luke chapter 2:

7-8 Group Recitation: In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them (Luke 2:1-7).

Grades 1-4 Song: "Here in the Dark" by Rebecca M. Bishop

1. Into darkness, into shadows, into gloom so dark and deep,
Came the Son of God the Father--tiny child; we watch him sleep.
Baby Jesus, Son of heaven, shine your love so true!
Here in the dark the only light is you.
2. Into darkness, into shadows, to the world the Savior came.
Hearts were waiting on the promise--life would never be the same.
Light would shine in hearts so blinded; love would come to be.
Here in the dark the baby Jesus see.
3. Brightened darkness, fleeing shadows greet the dawning of the day!
Watch in wonder, watch in silence; Jesus came to be the way.
Hear the promise of the ages; see him in the stall!
Here in the dark he came to save us all.

3. GOD SENT CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

Narration: Owen Achey

Lights are part of our Christmas celebration. We know it is coming when strings of lights begin to shine in homes and yards in the weeks preceding Christmas. God adorned the heavens with light on that first Christmas long ago when glorious angels appeared in the skies above Bethlehem.

3-4 Recitation:

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find the baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger".

All School Recitation:

Suddenly, a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests”.

5-6 Recitation:

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.” So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger (Luke 2:8-16).

Narration: Izzy Kretz

The shepherds believed the words of the angels and found everything they announced to be true. They were the first to behold the light of the world that God had sent. With their eyes they saw the baby Jesus. With their hearts they saw their Savior. In our day, God does not reveal his saving truths in the glorious light of angel messengers. But he still adorns the world with light—the light of his precious Word of Truth in the Bible. The writer of Psalm 119, the longest psalm in the Bible, puts it this way:

1-2 Recitation:

Your word is a lamp for my feet and a light on my path. (Psalm 119:105).

Narration: Izzy Kretz

Like the shepherds, we believe this Word, and with eyes of faith, we also see Jesus in the manger and know him to be our Savior.

Congregation and Grades Pre-8 Song: “Silent Night” (CW 60)

(Grades 1-8) Stille nacht! Heilige Nacht!
Alles schlaf, einsam wacht
Nur das traute hoch heilige Paar
Holder Knabe im lокkigen Haar;
Schlafe in Himmlischer Ruh!
Schlafe in Himmlischer Ruh!

(Grades Pre-8) Silent night! Holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight.
Glories stream from heaven afar;
Heav’nly hosts sing, Alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born!
Christ, the Savior, is born!

(Grades Pre-8) Silent night! Holy night!
Son of God, love’s pure light
Radiant beams from thy holy face
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

Pre-K Recitation:

Glory beaming from above—
Angels singing of God's love;
Come and see the baby small
Who has come to save us all.
Worship here this Christmas night—
Baby Jesus is the light.

Pre-K Song: "Away in a Manger" (CW 68)

1. Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.
2. The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes.
I love you, Lord Jesus; look down from the sky,
And stay by my side until morning is nigh.
3. Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask you to stay
Close by me forever and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in your tender care,
And take us to heaven to live with you there.

4. WE TOO ARE LIGHTS*Narration: Maya Beagle

The excitement of seeing the holy light sent from heaven in our Savior Jesus was evident on the very night he was born. It is especially clear in the actions of the shepherds after they had seen the baby in the manger.

3-4 Recitation:

When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them (Luke 2:17,18).

Narration: Maya Beagle

Like the shepherds, generations before us have shared this good news so that now we too have heard what God has said concerning this child. Jesus became one of us. He lived a holy life. He died to pay the price for our sins. He rose from the dead, securing victory over death for us. And he ascended to the glory of heaven where he rules forever. Everything in Jesus' life happened just as the Scriptures promised! Jesus proclaimed himself to be the light for all to follow. John writes:

3-4 Recitation:

When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life" (John 8:12).

Narration: Owen Achey

The greatest gift found in the light of Jesus is our redemption from sin and death. Even when we were lost in spiritual darkness, God rescued us. Jesus explained this most clearly to Nicodemus when he said:

Pre-K Recitation:

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16).

Narration: Allison Stuckey

Believers in Jesus not only enjoy the brilliant light of Jesus, they become lights that reflect his light. Through faith in Jesus, the Holy Spirit moves us to shine in this world of darkness as we point others to the true light of our Savior. Jesus tells us:

5-6 Recitation:

You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven (Matthew 5:14-16).

Narration: Mikayla Norway

We have seen the light of the Savior, Jesus Christ. Every year we celebrate his birth and anticipate his return again. He truly is the promised light from God. And now he calls us to be lights in this world. Through our words and actions, we draw many to God's holy light that they may believe in him and be saved.

All School Song: "Let Me Shine" by Rebecca M. Bishop

See the star; sing the song to the babe so small.
He's the light, God's own Son; He's the Lord of all.
Claim him now as your own; Give him praise on his throne.
For the Christmas light shining from heaven is God's great love!

Let me shine! Let me shine with the Savior's wondrous love.
Let me shine! Let me shine, Sharing wonders from above.
Let me sing of his glory and tell of his story,
Reflecting the light from above! Let me shine! Let me shine Jesus' love!

Congregation, please stand.
