P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Dialogue

P: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light.

C: God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

P: When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

C: See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples.

P: The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of deep darkness a light has dawned. For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

C: Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon us.

P: When the wicked advance against me to devour me, it is my enemies and my foes who will stumble and fall. Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear; though war break out against me, even then I will be confident.

C: The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?

P: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind.

C: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

P: Jesus said, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.”

C: His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light.

Lord, Have Mercy

P: In peace let us pray to the Lord.

C: Lord, have mercy.

P: For the peace from above and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

C: Lord, have mercy.

P: For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the Church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.

C: Lord, have mercy.

P: For this holy house and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord.

C: Lord, have mercy.

P: Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord.

C: Amen.

The Word

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P: Let us pray.

O God, in the glorious transfiguration of your only-begotten Son, you confirmed the mysteries of the faith by the testimony of Moses and Elijah, and in the voice that came from the bright cloud, you foreshadowed our adoption as your sons. In your mercy, make us co-heirs of glory with Jesus our King, and bring us at last to heaven; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Please be seated.

First Reading

Exodus 34:29–35

The glory of God was reflected in the two-sided covenant of the law which God established through Moses. It made people afraid. Through Christ God would establish a new and greater covenant which would remove all our fears.

²⁹When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the covenant law in his hands, he was not aware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the LORD. ³⁰When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹But Moses called to them; so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and he spoke to them. ³²Afterward all the Israelites came near him, and he gave them all the commands the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai. ³³When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face. ³⁴But whenever he entered the LORD's presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, ³⁵they saw that his face was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD.

P: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 3:7–18

Paul declares that the glory of the New Covenant of grace far surpasses the glory of the Old Covenant of law. The glory of the New Covenant is hidden in the work of Christ and revealed through the work of the Holy Spirit.

⁷Now if the ministry that brought death, which was engraved in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the Israelites could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory, transitory though it was, ⁸will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious? ⁹If the ministry that brought condemnation was glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness! ¹⁰For what was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory. ¹¹And if what was transitory came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts! ¹²Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold. ¹³We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to prevent the Israelites from seeing the end of what was passing away. ¹⁴But their minds were made dull, for to this day the same veil remains when the old covenant is read. It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away. ¹⁵Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts. ¹⁶But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord’s glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Gospel

Luke 9:28–36

The glory of God, hidden in Christ, shines through on the Mount of Transfiguration.

²⁸About eight days after Jesus said this, he took Peter, John and James with him and went up onto a mountain to pray. ²⁹As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning. ³⁰Two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared in glorious splendor, talking with Jesus. ³¹They spoke about his departure, which he was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem.

³²Peter and his companions were very sleepy, but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. ³³As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to him, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.” (He did not know what he was saying.) ³⁴While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and covered them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵A voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, whom I have chosen; listen to him.” ³⁶When the voice had spoken, they found that Jesus was alone. The disciples kept this to themselves and did not tell anyone at that time what they had seen.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate.

He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them up to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P: It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lived among us as a human being and revealed his glory as your only Son, full of grace and truth. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Prayer of Thanksgiving

P: Lord God, you are worthy to receive thanks and praise from all people. You created the world and all who live in it, and in your mercy you saved us. We give thanks to you for the grace of your Son, Jesus Christ.

Though in very nature God, he took the nature of a servant and became obedient to death, even death on a cross. He offered himself as a sacrifice for sin and redeemed us from its curse and penalty. He rescued us from the terrors of death and restored eternal life with you. He conquered our enemies and gained for us the kingdom of grace and glory.

Bless us as we receive your Son's body and blood, and lead us to remember his suffering, death, and resurrection. Forgive our sins and fill us with the hope of new life in heaven. Hear our praise and receive our thanks as we worship you—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my \dagger body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my \dagger blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: Amen.

C: his mercy endures forever.

P: Whenever we eat this bread and drink this cup,

C: we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

P: We give you thanks, O Lord, for the foretaste of the heavenly banquet you have given us in this Sacrament. Through this gift you have fed our faith, nourished our hope, and strengthened our love. By your Spirit, help us to live as your holy people until that day when you will receive us as your guests at the wedding supper of the Lamb, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Blessing

P: The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The Lord look on you with favor and ✝ give you peace.

C: Amen.

Farewell to Alleluia

P: Brothers and sisters in Christ, when we next gather for worship, it will be Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. On that day we will begin our solemn journey to the Savior's cross. While the joy of faith remains undiminished throughout the year, our rejoicing during Lent is muted and quiet. For centuries, therefore, Christian churches have omitted their most jubilant songs during this season, including the word alleluia, which means, "praise the Lord."

Now for a time we say farewell to alleluia. We do this to prepare ourselves for the quieter days of Lent. The alleluias will return on Easter dawn as we gather to shout our praise to the risen Lord.

Announcements

WELCOME! Thank you for joining our Trinity family in worship today. We invite you to keep growing with us through God's Word and Sacraments. If you have a question, please speak to a pastor or a Trinity member. If you are a guest, please pick up a guest packet and give your name and address in the friendship registration located in each pew. Ask the ushers if you need a pocket-sized aid for the hearing impaired. Large print bulletins are available upon request, with the Hymns for the service printed in them. A Nursery with our service on TV is located off the lobby for parents who need to calm young children.

OFFERING STATEMENTS for 2024 are available in the Narthex. Please contact Bob Inniger at 567-674-6049 with questions.

CHURCH MAIL Any correspondence in the mail that needs to be sent to the church, please begin sending to the school instead at 105 Allen St. Jenera, OH 45841.

HOLY COMMUNION: The Bible teaches us that Holy Communion is a public demonstration of participants' united confession of the Bible's teachings (1 Cor. 10:17). Since we strive to follow all that the Bible teaches, we believe that members of this congregation or the WELS or ELS synod are united in the true teaching and may commune together. All guests should speak with a pastor before Communion, to first determine if unity of faith exists. We're eager to establish a unity of faith and to declare this oneness at Communion with you. Members of the congregation are to indicate their intention to commune in the friendship registration booklet. For preparation before you communion, you could read about the Sacrament of Holy Communion from Luther's Small Catechism on page 293, or you could review the Christian Questions that Martin Luther wrote for those who were about to communion on page 295.

CALL UPDATE Pastor Nowak has accepted his call to serve at Anchored in Christ in Greenfield, MN. He will still be serving at Trinity until the end of May. The Elders met with Pastor Krueger on Wednesday night to plan a timeline for filling the upcoming vacancy. Stay tuned for more information about a pre-call meeting and a call meeting. The pre-call meeting will gather information for District President Sims to help him compile a list of candidates for the call meetings. It is an open forum for all members of the congregation. For more information, please talk to either Mr. Falck or President Ron Bower.

IMMANUEL VICAR PROGRAM SUPPORT OPPORTUNITY The members of Immanuel have decided to pursue a vicar for the next term (August 2025-August 2026). Traditionally they fund the vicar using an established savings account. This fund was spent down considerably this year as they provided support for Vicar Fluegge. Because of the blessings of this program to Immanuel as well as how we also have been able to help the future pastor grow through opportunities here at Trinity, we would like to provide our members the opportunity to support this fund as well. If any member would like to support this fund, they can give a gift with the designation "Immanuel Vicar" and we will direct it to Immanuel. The contributions can be made at any time, but any gifts given before March 16 will help them reach their goal of $30,000 that Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary has suggested as a target amount. If you have any questions, please contact Ron Bower or Mr. Falck.

THANK YOU We would like to thank everyone who helped celebrate the birth of our son David. We appreciate the many prayers, cards, and gifts of diapers and other thoughtful items that were graciously given. We are thankful to have a loving and supportive Christian family who can share in the joy of God's wonderful blessing of our baby boy. We ask for continued prayers as David has more testing at the end of March to determine what action needs to be taken next to help his kidneys function. We trust that God is with us, hears our prayers, and will answer them in ways that fulfill His will. -The Kruegers: Stephen, Jessica, Sarah and David EUCHRE TOURNAMENT is happening again this year at Trinity on March 15th, 6:00pm. We'll have the home court advantage as we win the championship . All card players are encouraged to sign up on the sheet at the back of church. Go Team!

HOPE HOUSE DONATION DRIVE: Until March 11th, we will be collecting items for Hope House Women's Shelter. Let's show our love and support for these women by donating the following items: Shampoo, Conditioner, Body wash, Deodorant, Cleaning products(Lysol, Pinesol, etc.), Shower curtains & rings, Small bottles of dish soap, $25 gas cards, $25 Walmart gift cards. Please drop off your donations in or near the collection bins in the church basement. Additionally, Hope House will be joining us on March 11 to host a special 'Game of Life' event for the Women's Ministry. Save the date! Thank you for your generous support.

LUTHERAN SCHOLARSHIP GRANTING ORGANIZATION OF OHIO (LSGOO) If you are not taking advantage of this excellent opportunity to direct a portion of your Ohio tax liability directly to our school's ministry, please check out www.lsgoohio.org or talk to Mr. Falck.

THE ELDERS ARE LOOKING FOR YOUR HELP – At the Annual Meeting, the Elders brought a list of people they were having a hard time getting into contact with. If you would like the list please grab a copy of the Annual Meeting Report or email tlsoffice@tlcjenera.org for a copy. Thank you!

THE ELDERS ARE LOOKING FOR YOUR HELP II – Do you like to talk with people and sharing your faith with your fellow believers? Then, the Elders are looking for your help. The Elders are looking for people to visit our shut-ins. If you are interested in helping encourage our homebound members, please sign up on the sheet in the back of church or in the basement. You can also email tlsoffice@tlcjenera.org or pastormatt@gmail.com. Thank you for considering this.

FUN WITH FOOD: Join us for Mornings with Mommy on Monday or Tuesday, March 3 or 4. Bring your children/grandchildren to make a plate of spaghetti and meatballs, do a bean bag pot toss, go on a picnic, explore our alphabet soup, and even play with cooked spaghetti. Register online at tlcjenera.org or call 262-391-7994.

DISCOVERY STORY: FOREST ANIMALS: The Hancock County Parks is coming for the next Discovery Story on Wednesday, March 12 at 10:00 AM in the church basement. Forests are full of life, including many different animals. A story titled, Bear Helps the Forest (Maybe You Help, Too), will be read. It is a picture book that highlights the life of a baby bear and other animals, such as squirrels, white-tailed deer, and Virginia opossums. Stay afterwards for crafts and other activities! Email mwmtrinity@tlcjenera.org if you plan to come to this event!

VOLUNTEERS are needed to help at Easter for Kids on Saturday, April 26 from 9:30 AM -12:00 PM. Please sign up on the sheet in the back of church if you are able to help. You can specify what you would like to help with—crafts, music, games, registration, snacks, or group leaders.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY is hosting the Lenten supper on Wednesday, March 12 starting at 5:30. We will be serving soup and homemade bread. Please sign up on the sheet in the back of church if you are able to bring food or help serve the meal. Bring food to the church basement by 5:00 PM and hot food no later than 5:30 PM.

MIDWEEK LENT SERVICE starts, Wednesday, March 5th: Reflections on Repentance from Psalm 51 - Using David's great penitential Psalm 51, penned following his affair with Bathsheba and the murder of Uriah, this series of Lenten reflections explores the depths of our sinful depravity, the brokenness of our relationship with God, our dire need for rescue, and the good news of forgiveness, cleansing, and rejoicing in our restored relationship with God and the promise of eternal life through Jesus our Savior. Lent worship services will be Wednesday at 7 pm, starting March 5th. Join us to reflect on our Savior's sacrifice for us and our salvation.

EASTER FOR KIDS & EGG HUNT: Trinity is hosting Easter for Kids on Saturday, April 26 from 9:30 AM-12:00 PM. The program is open to children age 3 - 5th grade. This event will give your children an opportunity to celebrate and learn about the true meaning of Easter. Children will discover the good news of Easter and what Jesus' resurrection means for them. The program features Bible-based activity stations where kids learn about the Savior's resurrection, praise him in song, make crafts, play games, and enjoy snacks together. Families are invited to stay after our Easter for Kids program for an egg hunt on the school grounds. Snacks and drinks will be provided for families in the parking lot following the egg hunt. The egg hunt is for toddlers, preschoolers, and elementary age children. If your children are not attending Easter for Kids but would still like to participate in the Egg Hunt, please register for the Egg Hunt. Please register online at tlcjenera.org (click on the "Upcoming Events" icon) or pick up a registration form in the back of church. Questions—contact Jenny Boehm 262-391-7994.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY: GAME OF LIFE: Women can participate in the Hope House Game of Life on Tuesday, March 11 at 6:30 PM in the church basement. This game uses real life scenarios, sometimes determined by a spin of life's wheel, that lands clients in various situations out of their control. While playing the game, you will be asked to make some difficult choices. The hope is that by the end of the game, you will better understand the barriers people living in homelessness and poverty are faced with. After the Game of Life is completed, we will continue our Bible study entitled "Time—It's a Gift". Lesson 2 goes deeper into God's Word to increase our understanding of four concepts of time: time of grace, times of refreshment, opportune time, and the fullness of time. If you missed Lesson 1, you can pick up a copy by the mailboxes in the church basement. Please sign up on the sheet in the back of church if you plan to attend the March event.
