Palm Sunday

Theme of the Day:

Dead and Buried: Surrender Buries Seizure

Congregation sings or speaks the bolded text

Palm Sunday Procession with Palms

Please stand.

P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Dear friends in Christ, during the weeks of Lent we have been preparing to commemorate our Lord's suffering, death, and resurrection. Today we come together to begin the solemn journey of Holy Week. Christ entered in triumph into his own city to complete his work as our Savior and to gain for us the forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation. We follow him in faith and praise him with joy.

P: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

C: Hosanna in the highest!

Luke 19:28-40

²⁸After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹As he approached Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, ³⁰"Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³¹If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say, 'The Lord needs it.'" ³²Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them. ³³As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" ³⁴They replied, "The Lord needs it." ³⁵They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it. ³⁶As he went along, people spread their cloaks on the road. ³⁷When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen: ³⁸"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" ³⁹Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!" ⁴⁰"I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

P: Let us pray.

God our Father, we remember how Jesus entered Jerusalem and was welcomed as a king by those who shouted “Hosanna” and spread their clothing and palm branches in his path. Accept our praise and listen to our prayers as we rejoice in our triumphant King, Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord.

P: Let us go forth in peace,

C: in the name of the Lord.

The procession begins. During the procession, the congregation will sing the hymn “All Glory, Laud, and Honor”.

Please be seated.

The Word

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you sent your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take upon himself our flesh and suffer death upon the cross. Mercifully grant that we may follow the example of his great humility and patience and be made partakers of his resurrection; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Luke 22:1–23

¹Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was approaching, ²and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some way to get rid of Jesus, for they were afraid of the people. ³Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, one of the Twelve. ⁴And Judas went to the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard and discussed with them how he might betray Jesus. ⁵They were delighted and agreed to give him money. ⁶He consented, and watched for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them when no crowd was present. ⁷Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. ⁸Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.”⁹“Where do you want us to prepare for it?” they asked. ¹⁰He replied, “As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters, ¹¹and say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks:

Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’¹²He will show you a large room upstairs, all furnished. Make preparations there.”¹³They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.¹⁴When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table.¹⁵And he said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.¹⁶For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God.”¹⁷After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, “Take this and divide it among you.¹⁸For I tell you I will not drink again from the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”¹⁹And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.”²⁰In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.²¹But the hand of him who is going to betray me is with mine on the table.²²The Son of Man will go as it has been decreed. But woe to that man who betrays him!”²³They began to question among themselves which of them it might be who would do this.

C: Thanks be to God.

²⁴A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was considered to be greatest.²⁵Jesus said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors.²⁶But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves.²⁷For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.²⁸You are those who have stood by me in my trials.²⁹And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me,³⁰so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.³¹“Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift all of you as wheat.³²But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”³³But he replied, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.”³⁴Jesus answered, “I tell you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know me.”³⁵Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you without purse, bag or sandals, did you lack anything?” “Nothing,” they answered.³⁶He said to them, “But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don’t have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one.³⁷It is written: ‘And he was numbered with the transgressors’; and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me. Yes, what is written about me is reaching its fulfillment.”³⁸The disciples said, “See, Lord, here are two swords.” “That’s enough!” he replied.³⁹Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples followed him.⁴⁰On reaching the place, he said to them, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.”⁴¹He withdrew about a stone’s throw beyond them, knelt down and prayed,⁴²“Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.”⁴³An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him. ⁴⁴And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground. ⁴⁵When he rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, he found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow. ⁴⁶“Why are you sleeping?” he asked them. “Get up and pray so that you will not fall into temptation.” ⁴⁷While he was still speaking a crowd came up, and the man who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him, ⁴⁸but Jesus asked him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?” ⁴⁹When Jesus’ followers saw what was going to happen, they said, “Lord, should we strike with our swords?” ⁵⁰And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. ⁵¹But Jesus answered, “No more of this!” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him. ⁵²Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard, and the elders, who had come for him, “Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come with swords and clubs? ⁵³Every day I was with you in the temple courts, and you did not lay a hand on me. But this is your hour—when darkness reigns.”

⁵⁴Then seizing him, they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance. ⁵⁵And when some there had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat down with them. ⁵⁶A servant girl saw him seated there in the firelight. She looked closely at him and said, “This man was with him.” ⁵⁷But he denied it. “Woman, I don’t know him,” he said. ⁵⁸A little later someone else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.” “Man, I am not!” Peter replied. ⁵⁹About an hour later another asserted, “Certainly this fellow was with him, for he is a Galilean.” ⁶⁰Peter replied, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed. ⁶¹The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: “Before the rooster crows today, you will disown me three times.” ⁶²And he went outside and wept bitterly. ⁶³The men who were guarding Jesus began mocking and beating him. ⁶⁴They blindfolded him and demanded, “Prophecy! Who hit you?” ⁶⁵And they said many other insulting things to him. ⁶⁶At daybreak the council of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and the teachers of the law, met together, and Jesus was led before them. ⁶⁷“If you are the Messiah,” they said, “tell us.” Jesus answered, “If I tell you, you will not believe me, ⁶⁸and if I asked you, you would not answer. ⁶⁹But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God.” ⁷⁰They all asked, “Are you then the Son of God?” He replied, “You say that I am.” ⁷¹Then they said, “Why do we need any more testimony? We have heard it from his own lips.” ¹Then the whole assembly rose and led him off to Pilate. ²And they began to accuse him, saying, “We have found this man subverting our nation. He opposes payment of taxes to Caesar and claims to be Messiah, a king.” ³So Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “You have said so,” Jesus replied.

⁴Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.” ⁵But they insisted, “He stirs up the people all over Judea by his teaching. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here.” ⁶On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean. ⁷When he learned that Jesus was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. ⁸When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see him. From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform a sign of some sort. ⁹He plied him with many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰The chief priests and the teachers of the law were standing there, vehemently accusing him. ¹¹Then Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe, they sent him back to Pilate. ¹²That day Herod and Pilate became friends—before this they had been enemies.

¹³Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people, ¹⁴and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined him in your presence and have found no basis for your charges against him. ¹⁵Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you can see, he has done nothing to deserve death. ¹⁶Therefore, I will punish him and then release him.” ¹⁸But the whole crowd shouted, “Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!” ¹⁹(Barabbas had been thrown into prison for an insurrection in the city, and for murder.) ²⁰Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate appealed to them again. ²¹But they kept shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!” ²²For the third time he spoke to them: “Why? What crime has this man committed? I have found in him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore I will have him punished and then release him.” ²³But with loud shouts they insistently demanded that he be crucified, and their shouts prevailed. ²⁴So Pilate decided to grant their demand. ²⁵He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, the one they asked for, and surrendered Jesus to their will. ²⁶As the soldiers led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. ²⁷A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wailed for him. ²⁸Jesus turned and said to them, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹For the time will come when you will say, ‘Blessed are the childless women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!’ ³⁰Then “ ‘they will say to the mountains, “Fall on us!” and to the hills, “Cover us!” ’ ³¹For if people do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

³²Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed. ³³When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. ³⁴Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” And they divided up his clothes by casting lots. ³⁵The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him. They said, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.” ³⁶The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar ³⁷and said, “If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.” ³⁸There was a written notice above him, which read: This is the King of the Jews. ³⁹One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: “Aren’t you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!” ⁴⁰But the other criminal rebuked him. “Don’t you fear God,” he said, “since you are under the same sentence? ⁴¹We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong.” ⁴²Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” ⁴³Jesus answered him, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.” ⁴⁴It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, ⁴⁵for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. ⁴⁶Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.” When he had said this, he breathed his last. ⁴⁷The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God and said, “Surely this was a righteous man.” ⁴⁸When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away. ⁴⁹But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things. ⁵⁰Now there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, a good and upright man, ⁵¹who had not consented to their decision and action. He came from the Judean town of Arimathea, and he himself was waiting for the kingdom of God. ⁵²Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus’ body. ⁵³Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, one in which no one had yet been laid. ⁵⁴It was Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was about to begin. ⁵⁵The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it. ⁵⁶Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.

Announcements

WELCOME! Thank you for joining our Trinity family in worship today. We invite you to keep growing with us through God's Word and Sacraments. If you have a question, please speak to a pastor or a Trinity member. If you are a guest, please pick up a guest packet and give your name and address in the friendship registration located in each pew. Ask the ushers if you need a pocket-sized aid for the hearing impaired. Large print bulletins are available upon request, with the Hymns for the service printed in them. A Nursery with our service on TV is located off the lobby for parents who need to calm young children.

THE WELS CONNECTION will be shown after both services today.

CALL MEETING DATE Our first Call meeting has been scheduled for Sunday, April 27 at 9:30 AM (between services) - please mark this date on your calendar and plan to attend this meeting. Pastor Krueger will be leading the meeting. Voters will consider a list of qualified candidates and vote to extend a Call to a Pastor at that time. Questions: Contact Congregational President Ron Bower or Staff Minister Falck.

IMMANUEL VICAR PROGRAM SUPPORT OPPORTUNITY Members desiring to support this program should make their gifts directly to Immanuel Lutheran. We are no longer actively collecting for this at Trinity.

BUILDING PROJECT UPDATE The contract for construction of the 86'x20' storage addition on the west side of the school gym has been signed. The contractor (Garlock Construction of Findlay) is in the process of finalizing permits with Wood County. The contractor is waiting for quotes and scope of work from subcontractors to finalize and schedule the start of the work. There are several items that anyone in the congregation could assist with or do to offset the cost of the project. These items include elements on the front and back end of the project such as site-prep work and finish work. If you have any questions you can call committee co-chairmen Jamie Siferd or James Miles. Please pray that God continues to bless this project as we look to maximize our space and provide the best setting for the many ministries we carry out in his name at Trinity!

LUTHERAN SCHOLARSHIP GRANTING ORGANIZATION OF OHIO (LSGOO) If you are not taking advantage of this excellent opportunity to direct a portion of your Ohio tax liability directly to our school's ministry, please check out www.lsgoohio.org or talk to Mr. Falck.

SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE CLASS We will continue our study through the book of 1st Corinthians for the rest of the school year. Paul wrote an important letter to a deeply divided congregation with problems. Join us as we study Chapters 12 & 13 of 1 Corinthians. Paul addresses issues with worship and godly use of spiritual gifts in worship. Let's see Paul's encouragement to the Corinthians and how it applies to us today. PLEASE NOTE: this is the last Bible Class of the month. Bible Class will resume on May 11th with chapter 14.

LAST CHANCE: Did you register your kids yet? Easter for Kids is scheduled for Saturday, April 26 from 9:30 AM – 12:00 PM. MIDWEEK LENT SERVICES started, Wednesday, March 5th: Reflections on Repentance from Psalm 51 - Using David's great penitential Psalm 51, penned following his affair with Bathsheba and the murder of Uriah, this series of Lenten reflections explores the depths of our sinful depravity, the brokenness of our relationship with God, our dire need for rescue, and the good news of forgiveness, cleansing, and rejoicing in our restored relationship with God and the promise of eternal life through Jesus our Savior. Lent worship services will be Wednesday at 7 pm, starting March 5th. Join us to reflect on our Savior's sacrifice for us and our salvation.

ANNUAL FIELD DAY As was done last year, the local field day will be held on a school day instead of a Sunday. The event is planned for Friday, May 9th beginning at 12:30. The awesome thing about doing the event during the school day is that every student in PK-8 gets to participate! Spectators are welcome - anyone wishing to volunteer can contact Mr. Falck. If anyone really wants to run with the kids, Mr. Falck will be happy to time you and cheer you as you cross the finish line!

CONCESSIONS DONATIONS are needed for the upcoming Track Meet on Friday, May 2nd. Please sign up at the sign up table to help out. Donations will need brought to the school by Monday, April 28th. The concession stand at our track meet helps offset the rental of the facility. Any donation (products or money) will help our proceeds go even further. If you have any questions, contact Principal Falck.

BIBLE STUDY AND DULCIMERS: Women's Ministry will be meeting at Nicki von Stein's house (15932 CR 60 Jenera) for the fourth and final part of "Time—It's a Gift" Bible study on Monday, May 12 at 6:30 PM. In Lesson four, we'll talk about managing our time and saying "yes" or "no" to the many choices facing us each day. The gospel of love and forgiveness enables us to give a "joyful yes" or a "graceful no"---without guilt and without pride. Join us for this final lesson as we learn to be content in whatever season of life we are in. Please sign up on the sheet in the back of church if you are planning to attend. Stay after the Bible study to listen to dulcimer music! If you are interested, you can also learn how to play.
