Theme of the Day:
The Church is Anchored in Christ

Congregation sings or speaks the bolded text

760 Oh, Blest the House

CW 760

Text: Christoph C. L. von Pfeil, 1712–1784, abr. Tune: ed. Joseph Klug; Geistliche Lieder aufs new gebessert, Wittenberg, 1535 Text and tune: Public domain

Please stand.

P: In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Dialogue

P: I believe that God created me and all that exists, and that he gave me my body and soul, eyes, ears and all my members, my mind and all my abilities.

C: By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.

P: God still preserves me by richly and daily providing clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, spouse and children, land, cattle, and all I own, and all I need to keep my body and life.

C: The Lord makes grass grow for the cattle, and plants for people to cultivate—bringing forth food from the earth.

P: I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the virgin Mary, is my Lord.

C: When the set time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those under the law, that we might receive adoption to sonship.

P: Christ has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, purchased and won me from all sins, from death and from the power of the devil, not with gold or silver, but with his holy, precious blood and with his innocent suffering and death.

C: The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

P: I believe that I cannot by my own thinking or choosing believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to him. But the Holy Spirit has called me by the gospel, enlightened me with his gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith.

C: No one can enter the kingdom of God unless they are born of water and the Spirit. Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit.

P: In the same way, the Holy Spirit calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith.

C: There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

P: Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! From him and through him and for him are all things.

C: To him be the glory forever! Amen.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P: Let us pray.

O almighty, everlasting God, you have granted us grace to erect this place of learning. Come and be present in this building by your Word, that it may be a workshop of your Spirit in which our youth will be made wise for salvation and trained for useful service in this life to the glory of your holy name; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Please be seated.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 6:1–9

¹These are the commands, decrees and laws the LORD your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess, ²so that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD your God as long as you live by keeping all his decrees and commands that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life. ³Hear, Israel, and be careful to obey so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you. ⁴Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. ⁵Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. ⁶These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

P: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:7–16

⁷But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it. ⁸This is why it says: “When he ascended on high, he took many captives and gave gifts to his people.” ⁹(What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions? ¹⁰He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) ¹¹So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, ¹²to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up ¹³until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. ¹⁴Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. ¹⁵Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. ¹⁶From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

P: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

Gospel Acclamation

Proverbs 22:6

Alleluia. Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it. Alleluia.

Gospel

Mark 10:13–16

¹³People were bringing little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them, but the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁵Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.” ¹⁶And he took the children in his arms, placed his hands on them and blessed them.

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise be to you, O Christ!

Please be seated.

Sermon Text

Hebrews 6:13–20

¹³When God made his promise to Abraham, since there was no one greater for him to swear by, he swore by himself, ¹⁴saying, “I will surely bless you and give you many descendants.” ¹⁵And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised. ¹⁶People swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all argument. ¹⁷Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath. ¹⁸God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be greatly encouraged. ¹⁹We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, ²⁰where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered on our behalf.

Installation of a Mr. Sam Evans

To the congregation:

P: Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ said to his church: “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

The Savior loves children and desires to share all his promises with them. Christian schools provide believers with a unique opportunity to pass on the truths of the gospel to the next generation. We do this work in Jesus’ name, who is the Good Shepherd of the young and delights to see them grow in grace and spiritual knowledge.

To the called worker:

P: Dear brother, you have been called to serve as 7th & 8th grade teacher and assistant principal of Trinity Lutheran School. You have been prepared for this ministry by careful instruction in the Word of God so that you are able to carry out your duties in conformity with that Word.

As a servant of Christ, you are to carry out your responsibilities in the light of God's Word and lead all those you serve to understand God's holy law and saving gospel. You are to keep your students in your prayers and guide and guard their spiritual growth.

You are to set aside time for personal study of the Scriptures so that you may grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. You are to strive to be an example of Christian faith and life so that others may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

You are to work together with the parents of your children so that the witness of law and gospel may be consistent in their home and school.

As principal you are to serve alongside the other called workers in this ministry. You are to strive to create an atmosphere where Christian love directs all things and where both faculty and students may flourish. You are to care for the faculty under your authority with special concern for their spiritual growth, as well as their correct teaching and application of Scripture. You are to oversee the curriculum and instruction in the school so that all learning takes place in the light of God's Word. You are to be diligent in maintaining a safe and positive learning environment.

In all your tasks and responsibilities, our Lord Jesus equips you with the gospel of the forgiveness of sins, the gift that makes you truly competent as a servant of Christ. St. Paul wrote: "Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God."

P: In keeping with the Word and will of the Lord, I ask you before God and his people:

Do you believe that the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments are the inspired and inerrant Word of God and the only source of truth for faith and ministry?

I do.

P: Do you accept the three Ecumenical Creeds—the Apostles', the Nicene, and the Athanasian—as faithful testimonies to the truth of the Holy Scriptures, and do you reject all the errors that they condemn?

I do.

P: Do you solemnly promise that all your service in its various forms will conform to the Holy Scriptures and the Lutheran Confessions?

I do.

P: Will you endeavor to live a life that reflects the love God has for you so that all may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven?

I will, and I ask God to help me.

P: Are you willing to carry out this work according to the grace that God gives?

I am, and I ask God to help me.

To the congregation:

P: Friends in Christ,

You have heard the promises spoken by the teacher and assistant principal you have called. I encourage you to receive him with joy and remember what the Word of God calls you to do.

Work together with him for the benefit of the Lord's kingdom, so that your shared service may bring spiritual blessings to the Savior's people.

Support him as he oversees the education of the young, so that they may be brought up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

Keep him and his work in your prayers, so that his ministry may be blessed and that he might carry out his work with joy.

Provide for his physical needs, for the Savior says, "The worker deserves his wages."

Honor and love him, as St. Peter urges: "All of you, be like-minded, be sympathetic, love one another, be compassionate and humble."

I now ask you in the presence of God:

Are you willing to receive your principal as a servant of Christ? Will you show him love and honor and support him with your gifts and prayers? If so, answer: We will, and we ask God to help us.

C: We will, and we ask God to help us.

P: The almighty and merciful God strengthen you to do what you have promised.

To the students:

P: The servant of the Savior we are about to install has been called to be the principal (and teacher) in your school. As you learn from him, show your love for Jesus by respecting and listening to him, especially when he shares the Word of God with you. The Savior calls on you to honor and obey all your teachers and instructors so that their work may bring them joy and be a blessing to you.

Installation

P: Samuel Evans, I install you as 7th & 8th grade teacher and assistant principal at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran School in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

P: The Lord pour out on you his Holy Spirit for the work you have been called to do that you may faithfully carry out all your duties and responsibilities with the Word of God as your confidence and guide.

Please stand.

P: Let us pray.

Almighty God, source of all wisdom, we thank you for the opportunity we have to send our children to Lutheran schools. May your life-giving Word be the center of all teaching and every activity so that all may come to know and believe your holy law and saving gospel. Equip our new principal with spiritual wisdom that he may faithfully carry out the duties of his call. Move our students to godly obedience and cause them to grow through their instruction in your Word so that they may serve you throughout their lives and finally inherit eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

To the called worker:

P: The Lord bless you and make your ministry a blessing to others.

The Sacrament

Preface

165

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them up to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

P: It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who promised that wherever two or three come together in his name, there he is with them to shepherd his flock until he comes again in glory. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Holy, Holy, Holy

CW 167

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of heav - en - ly hosts:

Prayer of Thanksgiving

P: We give thanks to you, O God, through your dear Son, Jesus Christ, whom you sent to be our Savior, our Redeemer, and the messenger of your grace. Through him you made all things; in him you are well pleased. He is the incarnate Word, conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. To fulfill your promises, he stretched out his hands on the cross and released from eternal death all who believe in you.

As we remember Jesus' death and resurrection, we thank you that you have gathered us together to receive your Son's body and blood. Send us your Spirit, unite us as one, and strengthen our faith so that we may praise you in your Son, Jesus Christ. Through him, we glorify and honor you, O God our Father, with the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my \dagger body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my \dagger blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: Amen.

O Christ, Lamb of God

CW 169

The musical score is written on five staves in a single system. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are: "O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us your peace. A - - men." The score ends with a double bar line.

O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world;
have mer - cy on us. O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.
O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world;
grant us your peace. A - - men.

Please be seated.

Personal prayer for before communion

Lord Jesus, you have invited me to come and receive your holy Sacrament. I believe that in the bread and wine you give me your true body and blood to eat and drink. Forgive my sins and nourish my faith through this precious meal. I long for the comfort that comes with your promises; I yearn for the assurance of your faithful love. Bless me now as I receive you by faith.
