602 Great Is Thy Faithfulness

CW 602

Text: Thomas O. Chisolm, 1866–1960 Tune: William M. Runyan, 1870–1957 Text and tune: Public domain

Please stand.

P: In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Confession

P: If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

C: If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

P: Let us confess our sins to the Lord.

C: Holy God, gracious Father, I am sinful by nature and have sinned against you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have not loved you with my whole heart; I have not loved others as I should. I deserve your punishment both now and forever. But Jesus, my Savior, paid for my sins with his innocent suffering and death. Trusting in him, I pray: God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Silence for meditation and reflection

P: Our gracious Father in heaven has been merciful to us. He sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, who gave his life as the atoning sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

624 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Gloria in Excelsis

Text: tr. Catherine Winkworth, 1827–1878, alt.; Joachim Neander, 1650–1680 Tune: Ander Theil Des Erneuernten Gesang-Buchs, Stralsund, 1665, alt Text and tune: Public domain

The Word

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P: Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have promised to be with your church forever. We praise you for your presence in this place of worship and ask your ongoing blessing upon those who gather here. Dwell continually among us with your Holy Word and sacraments, strengthen our fellowship in the bonds of love and peace, and increase our faithful witness to your salvation; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Please be seated.

First Reading

Exodus 14:13–31

¹³Moses answered the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the LORD will bring you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see again. ¹⁴The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still.” ¹⁵Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on. ¹⁶Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground. ¹⁷I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen. ¹⁸The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I gain glory through Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen.” ¹⁹Then the angel of God, who had been traveling in front of Israel’s army, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from in front and stood behind them, ²⁰coming between the armies of Egypt and Israel. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness to the one side and light to the other side; so neither went near the other all night long. ²¹Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided, ²²and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left. ²³The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea. ²⁴During the last watch of the night the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into confusion. ²⁵He jammed the wheels of their chariots so that they had difficulty driving. And the Egyptians said, “Let’s get away from the Israelites! The LORD is fighting for them against Egypt.”

²⁶Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen.” ²⁷Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea went back to its place. The Egyptians were fleeing toward it, and the LORD swept them into the sea. ²⁸The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen—the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not one of them survived. ²⁹But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left. ³⁰That day the LORD saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore. ³¹And when the Israelites saw the mighty hand of the LORD displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant.

P: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm of the Day- Sung by the Choir- 1st service

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:3–9

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you, ⁵who through faith are shielded by God’s power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. ⁷These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

P: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 6:16–21

¹⁶When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, ¹⁷where they got into a boat and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them. ¹⁸A strong wind was blowing and the waters grew rough. ¹⁹When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water; and they were frightened. ²⁰But he said to them, “It is I; don’t be afraid.” ²¹Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

Sermon Text

Luke 21:10–19

¹⁰Then he said to them: “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven. ¹²“But before all this, they will seize you and persecute you. They will hand you over to synagogues and put you in prison, and you will be brought before kings and governors, and all on account of my name. ¹³And so you will bear testimony to me. ¹⁴But make up your mind not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves. ¹⁵For I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict. ¹⁶You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers and sisters, relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷Everyone will hate you because of me. ¹⁸But not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹Stand firm, and you will win life.

Sermon Theme: “Not a hair of your head will perish”?

- 1) Troubles give us opportunities
- 2) Trust God to give you the words and wisdom
- 3) Trust him for triumph

Apostles' Creed

All: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Sacrament

Exhortation

P: Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, as we gather to celebrate the Testament of our Lord, let us take to heart the words of Christ by which he imparted to us his body and blood for the forgiveness of our sins.

Let us remember and give thanks for his boundless love, which he proved to us when he redeemed us from God's wrath, from sin, death, and from hell by his own precious blood. Let us faithfully confess that in this bread and wine—which are his body and blood—we receive the pledge and guarantee of his forgiveness.

Let us receive and enjoy this Sacrament according to the command that Christ gave, and glorify the name of the one who has so richly blessed us with this meal.

Words of Institution

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my ✝ body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

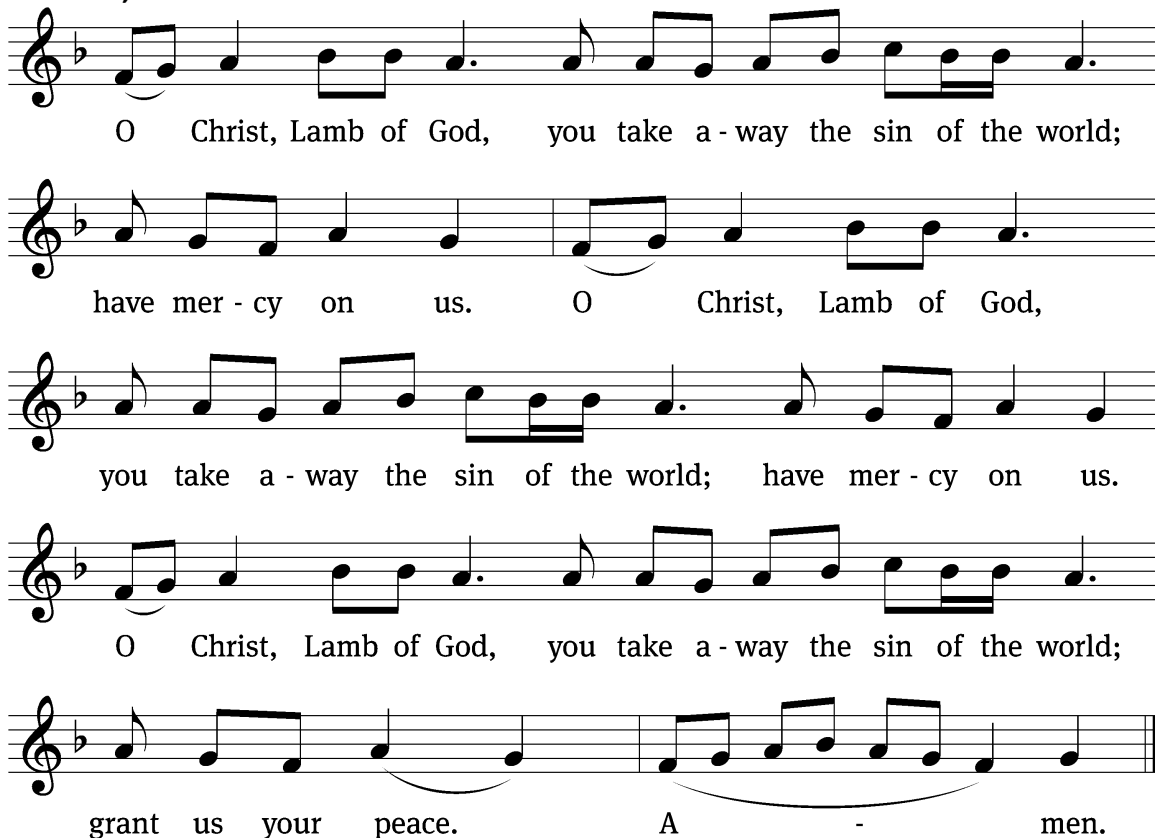

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my ✝ blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: Amen.

Announcements

WELCOME! Thank you for joining our Trinity family in worship today. We invite you to keep growing with us through God's Word and Sacraments. If you have a question, please speak to a pastor or a Trinity member. If you are a guest, please pick up a guest packet and give your name and address in the friendship registration located in each pew. Ask the ushers if you need a pocket-sized aid for the hearing impaired. Large print bulletins are available upon request, with the Hymns for the service printed in them. A Nursery with our service on TV is located off the lobby for parents who need to calm young children.

HOLY COMMUNION: The Bible teaches us that Holy Communion is a public demonstration of participants' united confession of the Bible's teachings (1 Cor. 10:17). Since we strive to follow all that the Bible teaches, we believe that members of this congregation or the WELS or ELS synod are united in the true teaching and may commune together. All guests should speak with a pastor before Communion, to first determine if unity of faith exists. We're eager to establish a unity of faith and to declare this oneness at Communion with you. Members of the congregation are to indicate their intention to commune in the friendship registration booklet. For preparation before you communion, you could read about the Sacrament of Holy Communion from Luther's Small Catechism on page 293, or you could review the Christian Questions that Martin Luther wrote for those who were about to communion on page 295.

PRODUCE GIVEAWAY The Produce Giveaway table has begun, extending until necessary. You may bring your extra produce to the south church doors on Sundays. If your garden does amazingly well this year, why not share?

JOIN US FOR WEEKLY CHAPEL All members are invited to join us for our weekly chapel service at the school. Chapel is held every Wednesday beginning around 8:20 in the church sanctuary. (In the case of extremely inclement weather, chapel services will be held in the school gym.) The services last about 15-20 minutes and are a great way to start the day. All members are certainly welcome to attend the opening chapel service, too!

AT THE FARM: Are your little ones ready for some learning and fun? Sign up for our first sessions of Mornings with Mommy on Monday, September 16 (at 9:30 or 11:00) & Tuesday, September 17 (at 9:30). Play with soy beans in our sensory bins, make a muddy pig, gallop on a horse, drive some tractors, and much more. After snack, children can go outside to visit live farm animals and go on a hay ride. Space is limited! Register soon online at tlcjenera.org or call 262-391-7994.

TIGER ATHLETICS Home Events - Concessions Donations and Volunteer Opportunities

Your Tiger soccer and volleyball teams have two home contests this fall. Soccer plays on Saturday, September 28 and Volleyball plays on Friday, November 1. (Times will be published soon.) Come on out and cheer on our players! There are also sheets on the sign up tables in church seeking donations of food and supplies for these games. We could also use some help running the stands at each event. Sign up now for anything you can help out with. We appreciate any help you can give. Questions? Contact Mr. Falck. Go Tigers!

ALTAR FLOWER SIGN UP Looking for a way to celebrate a life event, honor the memory of loved ones, or simply beautify the sanctuary as we worship our Lord? Sign up to donate flowers to adorn the front of the church! There are two sign up sheets for 2025 monthly flowers. One will be at the sign in table and the other one the basement by the back door. If you have any questions about the flower sign up list, please contact the church office.

CHOIR Come to Choir, just 1 hour a week! Singing: Releases happy/positive brain chemicals, Lowers stress, Stimulates the immune system, Boosts confidence, Best of all? Praising The Lord of All!! Wednesdays at 7:30 pm. Basement Bible study room. Confirmed 9th Grade on up. Questions? Deb Enderle (419) 306-8360

STAY CONNECTED TO THE SCHOOL In the past, the church newsletter was sent out monthly. This allowed for school information to be shared in a more timely way. With the decrease in frequency, the information we would include about the school would be more vague and likely less meaningful. We would be happy to add you to our weekly newsletter list. This newsletter is sent out weekly on Mondays to all our school families. It includes a brief devotion, upcoming events, and short summaries of the happenings at 105 Allen Street. To be added to this list, please contact the office: tlsoffice@tlcjenera.org or call 419-326-4685.

LWMS RALLY is on September 21st. Trinity will be hosting the Ohio Circuit LWMS Rally on September 21st at 9am. World Mission Speaker Dr. Terry Schutzl will be our speaker and talk to us about the growing field for multi-language publications. Just a reminder that all the ladies of our congregation are members of LWMS. There is a sign up sheet in the side entrance to the church. Our speaker is a past board member of the National LWMS. Don't miss this opportunity to hear him. Ladies are needed to help with registration, money collection, and counting votes. Call Cheryl Kretz at 419-326-6993 or e-mail cjkretz@frontier.com if you are planning on attending or helping.

THE DEACONS at Trinity Lutheran Church are updating the member, emergency contact list. If you have medical training or expertise in any emergency field and would like to participate, please email Todd Rossman with your name and cell number so you can be added to the list. Thank you! Todd Rossman- Trossman62@gmail.com

BIBLE STUDY FOR SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER: Apologetics: Confessing your Faith – Apologetics is narrowly defined as “defending the Christian faith by reason with gentleness and respect.” The Apostle Peter writes: “Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. 1 Peter 3:15-16 We can’t argue anyone into heaven, but we can speak about the hope that we have. This Bible Study will work with people to build up discussions about their faith and help them talk about it with other people. The Apologetics Bible Study begins September 8th between services.

CHILI COOK OFF and CORNHOLE TOURNAMENT: Trinity is hosting a Chili Cook Off on Saturday, September 21 at 5:00. Join us for some delicious chili! You can taste test each participant's special recipe, and vote for your favorite. If you wish to enter your own chili, please bring 4-6 quarts of chili to be judged. In addition to chili, there will be hot dogs to eat. Also scheduled is a Cornhole Tournament for participants 8th grade and older. Gift cards will be awarded to the winners of both the Chili Cook Off and the Cornhole Tournament. These activities will be held in the school parking lot, but will move inside the gym if it rains. Please bring your own chairs and drinks. Water will be provided. Sign up on the sheet in the back of church or on Trinity's website at tlcjenera.org. Please invite your friends and neighbors!

POWER POINT PRESENTER There is an opening for 2nd service for a Power Point Presenter. Please contact Pastor Nowak if you are interested in filling in the vacancy and/or for more details.

SAVE THE DATE Teens and your families, save Sept 29th for our family picnic. Help us kick off the year and plan this year's activities. Shipwreck Remembrance 2024

Today, members and guests of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Jenera, Ohio, gather to give thanks to God for protecting their ancestors 193 years ago when their ship was wrecked off the east coast of the United States.

A group of over 150 people had banded together to leave Germany in July of 1831. The German economy was very poor. A pair of high-top boots cost as much as an acre of farmland. They also wanted to get away from the forced military service, high taxes and an unfair government.

They sailed on Aug. 1 on a ship called the “James Beacham” which later became known as the “Famous Dove.” On Sept. 16, 1831, a strong gale struck, and the ship hit a sand bar which tore a large hole in the bottom of the ship, and it quickly filled with water. It appeared that it would sink before morning. Everyone was filled with fear but Margaretha Arras, a 13-year-old girl, reminded the people that Jesus quieted the waters on the Sea of Galilee and saved His disciples and “maybe He will save us too!” She started to sing a hymn (some say it was Martin Luther’s “A Mighty Fortress”) and soon all the immigrants joined in the singing. They vowed “If we are saved, the 17th of each September shall be kept as a holy day by us and our descendants, even unto the third and fourth generation.”

By the next morning, the storm had stopped, and they discovered that they were near the coast of Virginia, just south of Cape Henry. With help from people on the shore, they made it safely to land, thanking God for saving them from the storm and they repeated their vow.

Some families worked in the eastern states to earn money for their trip to Ohio. Two families arrived in Hancock County in 1834 and the next year 11 more families came. The first recorded Shipwreck Service was held on Sept. 17, 1836, with the text being Psalm 50:15 “Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you and you will honor me.” This same text was used for the fiftieth anniversary in 1881. Some of the Shipwreck survivors founded Jenera and Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church. The earliest services consisted of reading a sermon and singing hymns in various homes. In the late 1830’s and 1840’s, several pastors ministered to the settlers. In 1852, the first frame church was built.

As Jenera was incorporated in 1883 one mile north of the church, it was decided to move into the village. On the Sunday before Christmas in 1889, a beautiful brick church on Main Street was dedicated to the glory of God.

Three solid brass bells, donated by members of the original church, still ring to begin each service. Two additions have been made to the building that has served for over one hundred years and a school was started in 1948.

Many descendants of the Shipwreck passengers are members of Trinity today who gather to give thanks and praise to God for rescuing their forefathers from death in the storm and, more important, from eternal death, through His Son!

Below is a partial list of passengers aboard The Famous Dove. Many names are very familiar to Trinity. Information was taken paper written by Jonathan Rossman in 1998 at Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary.
